

Truckee Lions Club Scrap Metal Drive Nets $100 For USO

Members of Committee Gather 30 Tons of Scrap In USO Campaign.

With the first carload of scrap metal on its way from Truckee to factories to be converted into tanks, guns and other vital needs to blast the Japs and Huns, the Truckee Lions Club, sponsor of the drive to raise $385 for the United Service Organizations, is having a breathing spell before tackling another car.

More than 30 tons, which netted the drive well over $100 was contained in the first car. Committeemen headed by H. T. Langille of Rotary Oil and Burner Co., Frank Gaennie of Sierra Pacific and C. Edmunds chairman of the U.S.O. committee, spent hours of hard work in salvaging old scrap iron over the area. That which the committeemen collected was donated and brought $8 per ton. The balance was sold by the owners and the U. S. O. gained only $1 per ton on this portion of the load.

Gaennie made a complete report of the drive at a meeting of the Lions Club last night.

In the near future a call will be made for old car fenders and other lighter materials, proceeds of which will also be donated to the U.S.O.

Fred Willford, candidate for sheriff; Ward Sheldon, candidate for district attorney, and Norman Rockholm were guests. Elden Tonini presided.

by WALTER M. BARRETT

A plea: In the name of all the courageous young men who have given their lives and liberty on both land and sea and those who are continuing the cause of decent living and true democracy, please God, do not allow any leniency to be shown the eight enemy saboteurs who are being held for trial and whose objective was wholesale slaughter of our people and devastation of our property. The original laws of these United States of America were patterned as humanely as possible to conform with a perfect plan for oppressed and God-fearing people of all countries. To uphold and increase the morale of our fighting men and their families, the sentence should be swift and sure. We cannot afford, at this critical time, to allow the laws of a liberty-loving nation to be twisted to benefit of murderers because they succeeded in getting within our protective gates. We are being watched and will lose more "face" if anything less than death is given the Boche saboteurs. Liberty and license cannot be confused in the thoughts of our people.

Two lives were snuffed out this week on the Reno highway in one of the worst automobile accidents of the year. We have not investigated the cause and are not particularly interested in that phase of the tragedy. It is sufficient to realize that the accident could have been avoided and the two dead could have lived on to be of service to their families and to their country. Particularly at this time we cannot too strongly urge more caution on the highways. Less speed, more thought for the other fellow and less greed for self would diminish the tragedies of the road.

Come and help us to make this worthy cause a success. The next regular meeting of the club will be on August 10. —Pearl Heller.

GEN. KEPNER ANNOUNCES CHANGES IN AIR WARNING SERVICE SET-UP

Each chief observer of ground observation posts of the Aircraft Warning Service has received a letter from Brigadier General W. E. Kepner commanding the IV Fighter Command explaining the plans for additional army support to ground observation posts.

"The Fighter Command," General Kepner said, "is now in a position to provide centralized and controlled transportation for ground observers from their homes to the observation posts and return where commercial transportation is not available and where distance to be traveled requires some form of transportation. Details are also being worked out on a plan whereby this command will assume the expense of installation, and monthly rental charge for the telephones used exclusively for reporting of flash messages."

General Kepner pointed out that the assumption by his command of certain expenses of operation of ground observation posts does not relieve the local community, the county or the state civilian defense agencies of their responsibilities for meeting other expenses nor does it in any way relieve them of the responsibility for recruiting volunteers for these posts.

The ground observation corps, which is an essential part of the Aircraft Warning Service is important to all civilian defense since without it the local communities could not be warned of the approach of enemy aircraft and would not be in a position to take the passive defense measures for which such communities are now organized.

There devolves upon these communities, therefore, the responsibility to assist the ground observation posts and where community or county is not able to do this the State Council of Defense has indicated its willingness to assist them.

It has been indicated that the army will exercise direct supervision over the corps through civilian supervisors appointed by the command in each county and in districts within a county. The county director will remain in charge of the posts in his county. The state director in charge in each of the three states on the Pacific Coast will serve as liaison officers with the IV Fighter Command.

General Kepner expressed thanks to all observers and chief observers for their loyalty and devotion to the Ground Observation Corps. Without these patriotic citizens, who serve with little recognition from the community at large, it would be impossible for the Fighter Command to perform its mission of defending the Pacific Coast from enemy attack by air.

By mutual agreement, the state is being relieved of the responsibility for supervision of the corps, effective August 1, 1942. Supervision and control after that date will be exercised through the regional ground observation officer, county directors, area supervisors and chief observers.

The command plans to issue warrants designating those civilians who will be responsible for the supervision of the corps in a particular area.

School Budgets To Be Discussed Soon At Public Hearing

Instruction Costs Head Totals on Local Budgets Of School.

School budget hearing will be held in Truckee Tuesday, August 4 to hear any protests which might be presented before the budgets, which appear in full on another page of the Sierra Sun today are finally approved.

The hearing on the grammar school budget will be held at the grammar school at 7 p. m. and the high school meeting will be at 7:30 p. m.

If approved the grammar school will expend $9,651 during the 1942-43 term while the high school has set up a total proposed expenditure of $14,698 for the same period.

The largest single item in each budget is for instruction. For this the high school seeks $9,050 and the grammar school is budgeting for $5,225.

Plant operation at the high school will approximate $1,100 and at the grammar school $1825 is asked for this purpose.

Of the $9,651 requested by the grammar school, $3,373.57 must be provided by district taxation, and for the high school district taxes will account for $3,157.43 of the $14,698. In both cases the balance will be made up from available balances and estimated current receipts other than district taxes.

The budgets have been scanned and approved by Superintendent Walter A. Carlson who is calling the public hearings.

90 Per Cent of Local Fires In Forest Are Man-Made

Over 90 per cent of the forest fires starting in the Tahoe area have been traced to carelessly tossed cigarettes or matches, states Fire Chief Marc Edmonds of the Tahoe National Park.

This high percentage of smoker fires is a great concern to the forest officials and as a result an appeal to the public has been made urging the use of ash trays in cars and to smoke only at designated stations within the forest.

Inspector Harvey Blackwell and his staff of officers with the California Highway patrol in this area have pledged their wholehearted support in the apprehension of the careless cigarette flipper.

STREAMLINED RATIONING

Gasoline rationing in the East has now been streamlined. Having gone through several months of pitiful muddling, when cheating, bootlegging, lying and general disorder ran rampant, tighter regulations are now in force and the loopholes are being plugged up.

It is to be hoped that the new system will help those who depend on gasoline for their livelihood, will curb those who don't actually need gasoline and will make it easier for gasoline dealers to conduct an orderly business without creating enemies.

The new plan appears to be a big improvement over the old. But its success will depend largely upon the vigilance of enforcement, the fairness of ration boards and the co-operation of the people. No matter how many regulations may be made to enforce gasoline rationing, its ultimate success will be achieved only when the people in the East swallow the fact that, at least for the present, their automobiles are no longer pleasure cars but are now machines of war.

HURRAH FOR BILLIONS!

During June the government spent $158,600,000 a day on war production, which was $9,400,000 a day more than it spent in May, $23,800,000 a day more than in April and $76,000,000 a day more than last January.

It seems strange to stand on the sidelines cheering as the government goes over the top with another new record of expenditures. Until this year, when the government expenditures soared to new heights, it was the custom to howl instead of to cheer.

But now we don't think of those expenditures in terms of money. They are our yardstick of the speed-up in the production of guns, tanks and planes. The higher the expenditure the quicker the victory, is the way most of us are now thinking.

So go to it, Uncle Sam. Spend our money like a madman. Only be sure each extra dollar means an extra bullet, and not an extra dish of gravy for a war profiteer.

Lost Ration Books Can Be Replaced

Have you lost your war ration book?

If so, don't worry, for the Office of Price Administration today revised the provisions for replacing lost ration books by altering the two month waiting rule.

Hereafter local war price and rationing boards are authorized to issue new books in deserving cases where the boards are convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that a book was lost, stolen or destroyed. The new amendment also permits the boards to issue replacement certiicates to consumers whose sugar purchase certificates have been lost or destroyed.

At the same time the OPA issued an amendment making it easier for isolated consumers to make sugar purchases. Shepherders, ranchers and others handicapped by transportation difficulties may now purchase an amount not to exceed twelve pounds, as an advance against their regular rations.

California's 1941 granite output had a total value of $261,661.

USO BENEFIT CARD PARTY GIVEN BY TAHOE WOMEN BRINGS IN MORE THAN $117

TAHOE CITY, July 30—The card party sponsored by the Tahoe Women's Club for the benefit of the USO proved highly successful with approximately 70 ladies attending. On Monday President Ruth Mayfield announced that $117 had been taken in to date, with more still expected from outstanding tickets and promised donations. The amount represents the proceeds from the sale of tickets and from donations to the cause. The sum of $8.30, included in the total was realized from the sale of a very lovely cocktail cloth and napkins, hand blocked by Mrs. Harry Johanson and Miss Kathleen Starratt Anderson, during the afternoon, the lucky buyer being Mrs. Alice Kehlet of Meeks Bay.

The hall was beautifully decorated with Tahoe garden flowers and large bowls of pansies. Ladies from many districts were represented among the present, Meeks Bay, Homewood, Tahoe City, Brockway and Truckee all sending guests. It was the best attended party of the year and from opinions voiced, was deemed most enjoyable. Contract and auction bridge and Mah Jongg were played at the various tables. Winner at Mah Jongg was Mrs. Helen Cook of Meeks Bay. Awards were all in the form of war stamps.

Ladies on the entertainment committee headed by the president were Mesdames Stella Watson, Ruth Ables, Bliss Hinkle, Henry Worden, W. A. Simmonds and Nora Hevel.

The next meeting of the Tahoe Women's Club will be held on August 6th at which time a short business meeting will precede an afternoon of Red Cross sewing by the members.

TAHOE BRANCH LIBRARY IS 2ND IN PLACER COUNTY IN CIRCULATION OF BOOKS

TAHOE CITY, July 30—Circulation of books at the Tahoe branch of the Placer county library has increased from 3,830 in 1937-38 to 13,264 in 1941-42, a report by Custodian Anne B. Anderson to librarian Faye Russell shows. In the five-year period, the number of borrowers increased from 310 to 647. The total circulation was 53,939 books during the entire period. The circulation in 1941-42 at Tahoe City was second in the county, ranking ahead of 12 other communities, including Colfax, Loomis, Newcastle, Dutch Flat and Forest Hill. Auburn was the only branch with a greater circulation, having 14,189 compared to Tahoe City's 13,264.

The Tahoe City branch was established in August, 1937. Library hours are from 2 to 5 p.m. each Monday, Wednesday and Saturday. There are now 1,369 books in the local library branch beside those sent from the state and county libraries on special request.

At the Kings Beach branch in the North Tahoe area, a circulation of 1,090 was reported among 65 borrowers. There are now 395 books in the Kings Beach branch.

Mrs. Anderson reports that twenty boxes of books have been packed and sent to the county library for the boys in the armed services all over the world. Beside this, many gifts of books have been made to individual servicemen from the lake region.

Rodney Yeakel is still under the care of his physician as a result of injuries to his leg while working at Meyers. The piece of steel which pierced his leg has not yet been removed by Reno physicians who are treating the injury.

Tahoe's level on Monday stood at 6228.97 feet with 352 CSF of water leaving the dam gates. The Tahoe region has experienced some really warm weather which is truly appreciated, our warmest day so far having occurred on July 22, according to W. A. Simmonds, when the mercury soared to 89 degrees.

While Tahoe's shores do not ring this year with the shouts and laughter of vacationists as in years gone by, there are still hundreds who are managing to spend at least part of the summer season here. Much in evidence are the bicyclists, who ply the highways early and late. Sometimes whole families from father down tiny tots, spin by, riding like veterans, enjoying the scenery at the same time they are conserving tires and gasoline and obtaining their daily quota of exercise.

From the home of Bud Teagardens (she is the former, Theda Prusso) in Minards, New York, comes the news that a new baby daughter tipping the scales at six pounds was born to the family circle on July 14. Mother and baby were progressing nicely according to the latest word received here from them.

Arthur Jacobson, local employee of the Railway Express Company, has been quite ill for several days at his home in Tahoe City. He is believed to be suffering from ptomaine poison. Jacobson on August 1 is scheduled for promotion with the main office of the company at Vallejo where he will move his family upon his recovery.

Guests who enjoyed their hospitality included Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Sweeney, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arment and daughter Jacquelyn, of Nevada City, Mrs. Ruth Ables and daughter, Shirley, Capt. Hans Hansen of Rubicon lodge, Capt. and Mrs. John Kvistberg of Tahoe Park and the Swanson family. A number of new and unusual games kept the group highly entertained until well after midnight.

He is scheduled to become a member of the Navy air corps, having enlisted some time ago and will be stationed at the new St. Mary's school in Moraga Valley.

Edwin Wehrman, son of Henry Wehrman of the Tavern, is now a 2nd lieutenant in the medical corps at Santa Ana. He is well known at Tahoe.

Harry Grayson, former second class seaman stationed at San Pedro, has been promoted, according to word received from him, and will enter the navy's weather bureau division for study with increased pay.

Capt. and Mrs. John Kvistberg of Tahoe Park motored to the bay cities last week for several days, returning to Tahoe the latter part of the week. The captain will undergo a tonsillectomy at the San Francisco Marin Hospital before he returns to active government service.

X-rays disclosed that she had suffered a broken hip which will incapacitate her for some time. Her fall was in the kitchen of her home, and occurred shortly after she had returned to the house after helping her caretaker in rounding up some horses. She made a sharp turn which threw her off balance to the floor. The accident was a most unusual one, and her many friends of this region wish her speedy recovery.

Emergency First Aid Unit Progressing Satisfactorily

TAHOE CITY, July 30—Mrs. A. M. Henry, chairman of the Tahoe City Red Cross emergency group, reports that excellent progress is being made by local residents in lending their support for this newest wartime project. While Tahoe may never undergo an actual air raid, all precautions are being made to protect the community should one occur. Latest members to join the ranks of first aiders are Teachers Bliss Hinkle, Myrtle Gallinger and Mrs. James Dyer, who plan to have a branch unit at the Tahoe Lake School during school session. At a meeting held at the Tahoe Community Center on Tuesday night, the aid of all those having secured their first aid certificates was solicited for the Tahoe City area.

Tahoe school children are reminded that school bells will ring out again on Monday bringing to a close the summer vacation.

To Serve Six You Need:
3 1/2-lbs. rolled rib roast of beef
6 potatoes
1 No. 2 1/2 can tomatoes
1 head lettuce
(Balance of materials among staples)
Sift flour, baking powder, soda, salt and spices together 3 times. Cream shortening with sugar until fluffy. Add molasses and eggs and beat thoroughly. Add dry ingredients and coffee alternately in small amounts, beating well after each addition. Pour into greased flat pans, bake in 350-degree-F. oven for 30 minutes. Cut into individual squares and frost with Seven Minute Icing.

Seven Minute Icing
1 1/2 cups sugar
1/2 cup water
2 egg whites
3/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
3/4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
Combine all ingredients, except vanilla in top of double boiler. Beat with rotary beater until thoroughly mixed. Place over rapidly boiling water and beat constantly for 7 to 10 minutes or until icing will hold a peak. Remove from heat and add vanilla. Beat until cool and thick enough to spread. Spread on cake in large swirls.

Serving Hints
Place the rib roast in the center of the platter after removing the string which holds it in shape. Lay the orange slices around the meat as illustrated.
Serve the stewed tomatoes in individual sauce dishes. It's fun and adds interest to the meat too, if you bake the scalloped potatoes in individual custard cups or casseroles. To serve them, just place one on each plate.
Cut the lettuce in wedge shaped pieces and serve with mayonnaise to which a dash of chili sauce and a bit of piccalilli has been added.
Use of Leftovers
Slice the leftover beef in thin slices. Spread meat with bread dressing and roll like a jelly roll. Fasten each roll in place with wooden picks. Place in baking pan, pour leftover gravy over rolls and place them in a 350 degree oven to heat and cook the dressing. Allow 25 minutes before serving.

Road Dispute Will Be Settled At Meeting In Sacramento Soon

TAHOE CITY, July 30.—Tahoe residents are anxiously awaiting the meeting of the state highway department next month at which time it is expected the fate of Tahoe's lake highway for the winter will be decided. For some time reports have been current that only the highway between Tahoe and Truckee would be kept open by plows due to the fact that $20,000 would be required for the other roads.

It is a foregone conclusion that the meeting will be attended by Tahoe representatives, who will oppose any attempt to isolate the area. The opinion has been expressed that if a hard winter is experienced it will be more expensive to open the roads in the spring than to keep them open during the winter.

Many protests are being registered as the closing of the roads would result in hardships on the winter residents, most of whom have replaced wood stoves with oil burners and oil deliveries from Truckee would be necessary.

Gene Rogers will spend part of the month of August on vacation in the Tahoe region. His mother, Mrs. Nina Rogers is now in San Francisco with him.

TAHOE RED CROSS

TAHOE CITY, July 30.—Mrs. Evelyn Bliss chairman of the Tahoe Red Cross Chapter this week, announces that on Tuesday she is sending Red Cross headquarters Three turtle neck sweaters, one woman's coat sweater, 10 watch caps, one pair of gloves, 10 blouses, one bed jacket and one quilt, all having been completed by Tahoe women.

Knitters are still wanted to make helmets, gloves and watch caps, wool for which is on hand. Material is also available for blouses which are the current request.

Local organizations are urgently requested to assist in financing the equipping of comfort kits, the need for which continues to grow as all service men are given these at the point of embarkation. A bag can be filled at a cost of 90 cents by the Auburn chapter and anyone wishing to donate money for this purpose may contact Mrs. Bliss at Tahoe City 77. All contributions will be received gratefully. More kits will be made by the various chapters at a later date as there will be constant need for them. All women are asked to give as much time as possible to the Red Cross. The local group meets each Tuesday afternoon in the Tahoe Community Center where Mrs. A. A. Snyder is chairman of the sewing division.

Horses, Once Supreme, May Replace Motor Trucks in Express Service

THE Railway Express Agency, which operates the greatest fleet of motor trucks in the country and probably the greatest in the world other than those used by armies, stated yesterday that it is making a nationwide canvass to ascertain the availability of horses and wagons for its service. N. P. Ballou, Assistant to the President, commenting on this canvass, said that it is presenting angles that could not have been conceived of by its operating officials during the last war.

At that time the Express Company owned about 15,000 wagons and 20,000 horses. To take care of the greatly increased volume of business that required expedited service during World War I, the Company hired from contract draymen hundreds of additional wagons and horses.

Today, the Company is faced with the same problem of providing the greatest possible speed for a greatly increased volume of shipments essential to the war effort. For the first five months of 1942 its rail express has increased 24% and its air express 97%.

The canvass for horse-drawn equipment develops that of its former great fleet the Company has only six wagons and three coaches reserved as museum pieces. The available supply of horses, harness and wagons is naturally limited and the present shortage of gasoline and tires is causing that supply to be seized. Manufacturers of wagons are very limited. Manufacturers of harness have turned to other fields and some of the former great ones have even lost their specifications. So far the Company has been able to find only three manufacturers in the entire country capable of making horse collars and in many places the possibilities of having the horses shod is problematic. It was recently stated that only one horse shoer remains on Manhattan Island.

The change of the Express Company's great fleet to motors began before the last war with electric and by December, 1932, its last horse-drawn vehicle disappeared from the streets of New York. This was brought about by the greater availability of trucks, and was accelerated by city ordinances prohibiting the maintaining of horses in many districts and some cities even forbade the use of solid tires used on the electric.

In order to prolong the usefulness of its vehicles the Express Company is even withdrawing from the scrap heap electric of War I vintage in order to make available their few remaining miles. Mr. Ballou said that in their continual effort to provide for the future the Company had purchased in December, 1940, 52 synthetic tires which had been distributed to as many points in the country and that for the past 18 months careful tabulations had been made as to their original serviceability and the service secured when recapped.

Further, in commenting on the Agency's fleet of trucks, some 15,000, he announced that the Company had donated to the Army, Navy, Treasury Department, Office of Civilian Defense and the Red Cross all of its available poster space on these trucks for the duration of the war. Today on all of its vehicles in every part of the country there are appearing Army and Treasury Department posters. These will be followed by posters of the Marine Corps and the Office of Civilian Defense and, subsequently, the Red Cross. Later any other messages that these branches of the Government wish to carry to the people will appear. It has been estimated that 50 per cent of the country's population may see the posters on the Company's vehicles every day.

"The message must go through"

Forty-two thousand men and women of this company are behind your telephone service, making connections, keeping your service in order, working out ways to meet telephone needs.

They are a part of the great army of telephone workers in America who are out to help win this war. They have been tested time and again, in fire, flood and storm. Their call to action has been the tradition that says, "The Message Must Go Through."

They'll do their level best, under wartime conditions, to give you the finest service possible.

Henderson Pledges Data On Actions

Emphasizing that this is a people's war, and as never before Congress should be a people's Congress, candidate R. R. Henderson announced to voters of the Second Congressional District his plan for keeping the citizens informed if he is elected to fill the Washington post.

A former newspaperman and writer of considerable ability, Henderson stated last week that should he be chosen to Congress he will send a weekly report of his voting on all measures to every newspaper in his district.

"The voters of this district give a Congressman his job," Henderson said. "They are the stockholders in the big company he works for. He should give those 'stockholders' reports of what he is doing. I promise to do exactly that."

"Each week, I will send to the newspapers of the Second District a record of my votes on every bill. I believe the citizens would appreciate it. Having edited a country newspaper, I realize they do not always have facilities to get much information conveniently. That service should be part of a Congressman's job."

"Especially I believe the mothers and fathers of boys in the armed forces are entitled to know what their hired man in Washington is doing and why."

"Perhaps if California's Second District sets the example, other Congressmen will get the habit. Some editors I have told my plan to, think it might be catching—and a very good thing for the country—and for Congress!"

WEBB ENDORSES KENNY

SACRAMENTO, July 30 —(U.P.)—Ulysses S. Webb, attorney general for 36 years before Earl Warren took over four years ago, has come out strongly for State Senator Robert W. Kenny, one of the major contenders for the attorney general job.

Webb has always been a Republican wheel horse and hand a hanker to run for something himself this year. His endorsement of Democrat Kenny was hailed by the senator's backers.

CHECK ON NAZI RADIO, PRESS TELLS OF DOMESTIC 'GRUMBLING'

Recent foreign radio broadcasts and newspaper comment examined by U. S. government analysts show evidence of "difficulties" on the German home front.

Most of the evidence comes from enemy sources. It was gathered by the Office of War Information from monitored foreign radio broadcasts. Heinrich Himmler, notorious Gestapo chief, has ordered "grumblers, defeatists and persons who have committed offenses against food distribution regulations" sent to concentration camps.

Dr. Josef Goebbels, Nazi propaganda head, has already opened up an intensive campaign to convince the Germans they will suffer in his own words there will be "hell on earth" if the Allies win.

Such speeches as these — and there have been many more like them, according to the reports of the Office of War Information — have been followed by punitive action.

A German broadcast, just recently, told of the arrest of six workers in the Frankfurt armament works for listening to foreign broadcast and "preparing a treasonable undertaking." These workers were accused of soving "suspicion and doubts" among war workers.

Other comments heard via radio, and from the press through neutral nations, show that the length of the war, fear of food shortages, casualties, RAF bombings, and growing shortages of services, transportation, drugs and textiles have caused grumbling in Germany.

The Nazi dominated newspapers have started a campaign asking that civilians restrain their grief at military casualties.

A German army officer, commenting on the grief shown by civilians when deaths in their families were announced, said:

"I read with disappointment obituary notices of many brave men... It is impossible that the people back home think in such a manner of their dead."

The drain of the Russian front losses on German manpower has been shown by the recruiting of more than 2,000,000 foreign workers and by the collection of 5,000,000 pieces of men's clothing in a recent Nazi textile campaign.

German newspapers and domestic broadcasts have indicated that civilian transportation is practically forbidden by special decree. Accommodations at spas and seaside health resorts are restricted to urgent cases and for short periods. War regulations restrict the civilians permitted in nursing homes. Many people are obliged to wait weeks before medical prescriptions can be filled.

402 ANTELOPE KILLED IN RECENT OPEN SEASON

SACRAMENTO, July 30 —(U.P.)—Making a final report on this year's antelope hunt, first legal season in California in 48 years, Chief J. S. Hunter of the bureau of fish and game conservation, announced today that 402 antelope were killed.

Altogether, 452 hunters were looking for the elusive animals. Seventy per cent of those killed were reported from Lassen county.

The largest antelope weighed 144 pounds.

ONLY ONE STOP

to save precious rubber for the war effort, the director of Defense Transportation issued a general order to service industries which says:

- 1.—We cannot make more than one stop at each customer's residence in any one day. This means to pick up your laundry, your bundle must be ready and available when we call. To deliver your laundry, we must make collections at the time of delivery. If these rules are not complied with, we must postpone delivery or pickup until the next day
- 2.—We cannot give any special delivery service. This means any requests, other than our regular delivery service, cannot be granted.
- 3.—We must reduce our truck mileage 25 per cent each month below what it was the same month last year. This means we must re-schedule our delivery service in each territory.

This is a government order, we must comply with it

The inconvenience caused by this order will mean a sacrifice to both of us. But we feel that it is a small sacrifice, because it will enable us continue to serve you and at the same time help our nation in its effort to win the war.

North Tahoe News . . .

by MADELINE GALLERANI

The American Red Cross First Aid committee of North Tahoe has completed its first aid emergency kit which it was asked to assemble and is ready for instant use. It is equipped with splints, bandages, cots, mattresses, medicines for giving first aid, cravat bandages, flashlights, candles, heating pads, several types of saturation pads, towels and four blankets. The kit will be located at the Carpenters' Hall at Kings Beach and is to be used for any war emergency. The committee wants to thank the following people for this assistance and helpful information and money and articles donated or loaned: Talamanda Girls' Camp, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Comstock, Mr. and Mrs. C. Oddie, Bob Parker, North Tahoe Community Club and the Red Cross sewing unit of North Tahoe who spent all day Wednesday sewing for and assembling the kit. The North Tahoe Community Club also maintains a sick room kit to be used by the community in case of sickness.

Visitors are welcome after sundown, with a crowd usually on hand around 8 o'clock. Community singing and short talks on fire prevention and forest etiquette are on the programs.
